Mystic River Pinot Blanc

Okanagan Valley

“Most Awarded Pinot Blanc at the Lieutenant Governor’s Annual Awards of Winemaking Excellence”

We like to think this is the house wine at the BC Lieutenant Governor’s House, but we’re not sure because we haven’t been invited to dinner yet! Produced from a single estate vineyard, layers of top soil followed by pure gravel spells excellent terroir for this varietal. This small production wine has a nose that shows melon, grapefruit and vanilla, while the palate tastes of anise, pear and rose hips. The mouthfeel is balanced with a lengthy finish that goes on and on and on and...
